

SYRIA

سوريا

A Children's Crisis?

أزمة للأطفال؟

OXFAM

Inside Syria

What do you know already?

ALJAZEERA

KEY QUESTIONS

Is the Syria conflict a ‘children’s crisis’?

As you listen to the presentation think about:

- the extent to which any issues affect children more than adults
- any issues that only affect children
- any unanswered questions you have that make it difficult to reach a conclusion

OXFAM

Inside Lebanon – where families live

Inside Lebanon – where families live

Inside Lebanon – where children play

Inside Lebanon – children's chores

Inside Lebanon – not going to school

THINKING POINT

Imagine you are an Oxfam project manager in Lebanon.

What are the three main projects you would set up to support Syrian refugees in Lebanon?

Remember to think carefully about the specific needs of the refugees who moved to Lebanon.

OXFAM

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Refugee Camp

Inside Jordan – arriving at the border

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp reception

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp: where people live

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp:
missing out on school

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp: making a living

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp: essential services

Inside Jordan – Za'atari Camp: essential services

THINKING POINT

Imagine you are an Oxfam project manager in Jordan.

What are the three main projects you would set up to support Syrian refugees in Jordan?

Remember to think carefully about the specific needs of the refugees who moved to Jordan.

OXFAM

WHAT IS OXFAM DOING?

OXFAM

Lebanon

Jordan

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

OXFAM

1. Write to your MP

Ask students to create messages and send them to your MP with a letter.

2. Fundraise

Do something to make your school more welcoming and helpful.

3. Keep Learning

Syria is a complex and fast moving emergency. Stay engaged, keep learning and be informed.

